Dear parents and carers

This is a reminder that your young person will need their own copy of 'An Inspector Calls' by JB Priestley for their first lesson back after Christmas (Thursday 4 January). We recommend the version published by Penguin Modern Classics, titled 'An Inspector Calls and Other Plays', although other versions are available.

I know that you have already been asked to buy two other books for your young person's English Literature lessons, but I can reassure you this is the last book they will need. It really is important that they have their own copy of the text to annotate and use for revision so thank you for your support with this.

As before, if you are in receipt of Free School Meals we will provide your young person with a copy of the texts they need.

Please do get in contact with any questions or issues.

Kind regards

Mrs C Wood
Director of Learning: English and Media
