Dear parents and carers

We are making some changes to the Year 9 groups in the Humanities and Creative subjects for next half term, following reviews of our curriculum and student progress through this first half term.

The aim is to ensure that we can deliver Quality First Teaching to smaller ranges of ability within the groups. These will be reviewed again as we approach the end of next half term.

Towards the end of the half term break, the new groups will be available on student timetables on Arbor. This is not something for our students to worry about, and if you have any queries once you have seen the new groupings, please contact either myself mlockhart@carringtonschool.org or Mrs Basso (Deputy Headteacher) mbasso@carringtonschool.org.

I would like to thank you for your continued support and wish you a pleasant half term break.

Best wishes

Mr M Lockhart
Assistant Headteacher, KS4
