Dear parents and carers

If you haven't yet booked appointments to meet with your young person's teachers tomorrow, there is still time to do this. Their teachers are really keen to talk to you about how your young person got on in their recent mock exams and what the next steps are to support them with their upcoming GCSEs.

You should have received an email from School Booking with details of how to book, if you haven't received this email, and it is not in your spam/junk mailbox, please contact Mr Stafford (bstafford@carringtonschool.org).

Best wishes

The Carrington Team
