1. Aims

Schools are required under the Equality Act 2010 to have an accessibility plan. The purpose of the plan is to:

Increase the extent to which disabled students can participate in the curriculum. This includes teaching and learning and the wider curriculum of the school such as participation in the extra-curricular programme, leisure and cultural activities or school visits.

Improve the physical environment of the school to enable disabled students to take better advantage of education, benefits, facilities and services provided. This includes improvements to the physical access to the school and physical aids to access education.

Improve the availability of accessible information to disabled students. This will include planning to make written information that is normally provided by the school to its students available to disabled students. The information should take account of students' disabilities and students' and parents' preferred formats and be made available within a reasonable timeframe.

Carrington School is committed to providing all of our students every opportunity to achieve the best outcomes. We do this by taking account of students' varied life experiences and needs. We offer a broad and balanced curriculum and have high expectations for all students. Our school aims to treat all its students fairly and with respect. This involves providing access and opportunities for all students without discrimination of any kind.

The plan will be made available online on the school website, and paper copies are available upon request. Our school is also committed to ensuring staff are trained in equality issues with reference to the Equality Act 2010, including understanding disability issues.

Our school's complaints procedure covers the accessibility plan. If you have any concerns relating to accessibility in school, this procedure sets out the process for raising these concerns.

2 Legislation and guidance

This document meets the requirements of schedule 10 of the Equality Act 2010 and the Department for Education (DfE) guidance for schools on the Equality Act 2010. The Equality Act 2010 defines an individual as disabled if he or she has a physical or mental impairment that has a 'substantial' and 'long-term' adverse effect on his or her ability to undertake normal day to day activities. Under the Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Code of Practice, 'long-term' is defined as 'a year or more' and 'substantial' is defined as 'more than minor or trivial'. The definition includes sensory impairments such as those affecting sight or hearing, and long-term health conditions such as asthma, diabetes, epilepsy and cancer. Schools are required to make 'reasonable adjustments' for students with disabilities under the Equality Act 2010, to alleviate any substantial disadvantage that a disabled pupil faces in comparison with non-disabled students. This can include, for example, the provision of an auxiliary aid or adjustments to premises

3   Monitoring arrangements

This document will be reviewed every 3 years, but may be reviewed and updated more frequently if necessary. It will be approved by the Quality of Education Committee. Links with other policies

4   Increasing Access for Disabled Students to the School Curriculum

Improving teaching and learning lies at the heart of the school's work. Through self-review and Continuous Professional Development (CPD), we aim to enhance staff knowledge, skills and understanding to promote outstanding teaching and learning for all students. We aim to meet every child's needs through Quality First Teaching. We have a wide range of equipment and resources available for day to day use. We keep resource provision under constant review.

Robust plans are in place for disabled students, staff are familiar with these plans and plans are reviewed regularly.	Plans are distributed and sign-posted by a range of means to ensure maximum coverage.
Resources are tailored to the needs of individual students, including classroom-based ICT	On-going research to assess and access appropriate resources.

Objective	Tasks & Activities	Success Criteria	Staff Responsible	Support / staff development requirements	Resource Implications	Date of completion
Equality of access is a key consideration for planning and delivery of all co-curricular activities.	Accessibility issues are considered at planning stage of all co-curricular activities so that appropriate adjustments can be made on a case by case basis Staffing and location of activities may be adapted to ensure access.

5   Improving Access to the Physical Environment of the School

Carrington School is continually growing and developing. There are ongoing plans to improve its facilities. Provision is negotiated when a student's specific needs are known and individual accessibility plans are drawn up and implemented.

All required areas of the school are accessible to all.	Relevant adjustments will be made to rooming in order to relocate some activities from inaccessible areas. A temporary ramp is available from the Maintenance Team. Where there are disabled or temporarily disabled staff or pupils a person Emergency Evacuation Plan (PEEP) shall be put in place. This may require further Accessibility Aids to be provided.
Reduce trip hazards and improve quality of roads and pathways around site	Maintain programme of road re-surfacing and pothole repair. Monitor road-markings and maintain programme of improvement. Staff are encouraged to report to maintenance where any issues in paths or roadway

Ensure all disabled people can be safely evacuated	Where there are disabled pupils or staff at school, a risk assessment would be undertaken which would include a Personal Emergency Evacuation Plan (PEEP). Similarly, if events are planned where visitors are disabled, or in the case that people are temporarily disabled, a risk assessment would be undertaken which sets out a PEEP. The need for training in evacuation procedures of disabled people will be kept under review and implemented where necessary to address the needs of any PEEP

6   Improving the Delivery of Information to Disabled Students

This includes planning to make written information that is normally provided by the school to its students available to students with a disability. Examples include handouts, textbooks and information about school events. The information will take account of students' disabilities and parents'/carers' preferred formats and should be made available within a reasonable timeframe. In planning to make information available to disabled students we regularly need to establish the current level of need and be able to respond to any changes in the range of need. The school will need to identify agencies and sources of such materials to be able to make the provision available, should it be required. The schools ICT infrastructure will enable us to access a range of materials supportive to need.

Objective	Tasks & Activities	Success Criteria	Staff Responsible	Support / staff development requirements	Resource Implications	Date of completion
Availability of written material in alternative formats for students and parents who require them,	Ensure that individual learning plans reference any adaptations required for pupils and that these are implemented. Ensure that parents and carers are aware that written communications can be provided in alternative formats. This will be done by attaching a statement to relevant written communication. "If you have difficulty accessing any of the information included in this communication please email reception@carringtonschool.org or telephone the school to request information in a different format."

The school has ready access to specialist provision for converting information into alternative formats when required.	Identify services for signing and Braille, and ensure that staff are aware of how to access them, Identify software that can be used to improve accessibility, such as Text to Talk, and ensure that relevant staff are aware of this.
