Religious Studies

Assessment	Revision Help
Revise all topics covered since the start of this academic year in September to the end of the Autumn Term 1 on Unit 1 Western Philosophy : Free Will SKI1 will be marked out of 44 marks. The exam will last for 1 hour (unless you have extra exam concessions such as extra time, in which case, this will be honoured). There will be four sections on the paper: Section A: There will be 5 keyword definition questions (worth 2 marks each) where you will be asked to define the key word (1 mark) and to give an additional piece of information about the keyword (1 mark). Additional pieces of information could be for example- an example of further information known about the keyword. For example, if the keyword is 'omnipotence' then you will get 1 mark for defining the word e.g. 'The word omnipotence means that God is all-powerful'. You will get a second mark for giving another sentence which contains more information about the definition, for example, 'Christians believe that God is omnipotent as he created the world and everything in it.' Section B: multiple choice questions (worth 1 mark each). There will be 5 multiple choice questions on the paper. Section C: This is a section where you will be given three sources from content covered in class and 4 questions relating to this. You will need to use your subject knowledge to analyse the sources given. Section D: This is a written section that contains an outline question (3 marks), an explain questions (4 marks) and an evaluation question (12 marks plus 2 marks SPAG (Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar)). The evaluation question will carry the most marks. For this question, you will be given a statement and you will need to consider arguments for and against the statement.	• Knowledge Organisers • Keyword Sheets • Exercise books • Booklet • Arbor
